Our standard commitment: The standard commitment for new clients is 3 months. After the initial 3 months the agreement becomes a month to month agreement and the client may cancel at any time.

Our Performance Guarantee: At any time during the first 3 months of marketing the client may cancel and void the standard 3 month commitment if their marketing campaign fails to generate the minimum number of new sales or clients as follows: minimum 5 new clients per month for the Silver level, minimum 8 new clients per month for the Gold level, and minimum 11 new clients per month for the Platinum level. Our clients also have the right to decide what is considered a new client or sale and what is not.

What happens when a client requests cancellation: If a client wishes to cancel at any time they would simply call or email us and request cancellation, at which time they will be issued a cancellation number via email (so the cancellation confirmation is officially in writing). The client's campaign will then run until the end of it's current monthly cycle and then shut down, and the client will not incur any new charges. Each previous transaction is final and there are no refunds.
